For publication in:_____
(hereafter called The Journal)

In compliance with the Copyright Revision Act of 1976, effective January 1, 1978, Field Museum of Natural History, in consideration of having reviewed, edited, and accepted The Work named above, now requests that each author sign a copy of this form before publication of The Work. Such signature shall evidence the mutual understanding between Field Museum of Natural History and the undersigned Author hereby transferring, assigning or otherwise conveying all copyright ownership, including any and all rights incidental hereto, exclusively to Field Museum of Natural History, thus protecting you as Author and us as sponsor of The Journal from the consequences of unauthorized use.

Field Museum of Natural History, in turn, grants to The Author the right of re-publication of The Work in any book of which The Author is author or editor, subject to The Author giving proper credit in the book to the original Journal publication by Field Museum of Natural History.

The Author warrants that he is the author and sole owner of The Work submitted; that it is original and has never been published elsewhere; and that The Author has full power to grant such rights. Otherwise, The Author warrants that, if The Work had been previously published in whole or in part, permission has been obtained for publication in The Journal, and The Author will submit copy of the permission release and copy for credit lines.

It is understood that The Author will receive no royalty or other monetary compensation from Field Museum of Natural History for the use of The Work.

Please sign and date both copies of this agreement. Return the original to Fieldiana, Field Museum of Natural History, and retain the copy for your files. Note that publication of The Work cannot be completed until this agreement is returned.
