We would like to thank everyone who helped make the research in this volume possible, with special thanks to our community partners: Jean Carter-Hill, Imagine Englewood...if!; Olivia Hernandez and Rosa Perea, Centro Comunitario Juan Diego; Mel Jackson and Luzetta Jackson-Jones, Lake Park Crescent; Steven McCullough, Bethel New Life, Inc.; Jonathan Peck, Southwest Youth Collaborative; Jackie Taylor, North Town Village. This volume would not have been possible without the generous support of the Ford Foundation, which funded the Urban Research and Curriculum Transformation Institute, and the insight of colleagues in the Center for Cultural Understanding and Change at The Field Museum.
