

The Crown Family PlayLab Photo Captions

Woodland

This 3-dimensional woodland diorama caters to children of all ages. While pre-schoolers enjoy crawling through logs and discovering life in the Illinois Woodland, older children may enjoy putting on costumes and performing their own play complete with day and night lighting and ambient sounds!

© The Field Museum

Pueblo

Children who enjoy playing house at home can now explore what preparing meals and domestic life would be like hundreds of years ago in a different culture.

© The Field Museum

Rhythm

The Illinois Woodland is also a stage for dramatic animal play where children are encouraged to put on a play complete with lighting and sound effects.

© The Field Museum